What's New

This summer we're rolling out the welcome mat for not one, not two, but three fabulous Recreational Therapy (RT) interns! Emily hails from GVSU, clocking in 300 hours of fieldwork, while Cierra and Jenna from Calvin University are diving into a whopping 560-hour internship marathon to snag their diplomas and ace the NCTRC exam. Our seasoned therapist and mentor, Aubrey, who has experienced mentoring nine interns before, is thrilled to whip them into professional shape for the wild world beyond! During their adventure here, they'll tackle all things RT, sprinkle magic on Hestóvin's programs, and work toward becoming Certified Therapeutic Riding Instructors through PATH, International. Let's roll out the red carpet for these powerhouse interns as they leap into their new roles!
